ABOUT ME

I'm Ali, I just graduated in computer engineering. I would love to work in this company, add value and gain experience. My biggest goal is to be a software developer in a career that can set an example for my environment. I'm solving rooms on TryHackMe every day for this goal. I'm in the top 10k among 1.4M users right now. People around me describe me as smart, adaptable, and thinking outside of the box
